v. 3. Lend a hand to one an-oth-er, In the race for hon-ors crown,
 v. 1. Lend a hand to one an-oth-er, In the dai-ly toil of life,
 v. 2. Lend a hand to one an-oth-er, Where ma-li-cious tongue hath thrown,

Should it fall up-on your broth-er, Be not first to tear it down.
 Should we meet a weak-er broth-er, Let us help him in the strife.
 Dark sus-pi-cions on your broth-er, Be not first to cast the stone.

1561-3

Entered according to act of Congress A.D. 1866 by Balmer & Weber in the Clerk's office of the U.S. Dist. Court for the East. Dist. of Mo.

Lend a hand to all I say, In their sunshine or their sorrow,
 There are none so rich but may, In their turn be forced to borrow,
 There are none so rich but may, Come a-drift on shame or sorrow,

Then the prize we've lost to day, May be-come our own to morrow.
 And the poor man's lot to-day, May be-come our own to-morrow.
 And the best man here to-day, May be-come the worst to-morrow.
